

WS Employment Law Conference 2015

In association with Terra Firma Chambers

Thursday 24 September 2015

9.00 am – 1.00 pm

Signet Library, Edinburgh

Innes Clark, Morton Fraser

The annual WS Employment Law Conference returns on 24 September 2015 and, as ever, will provide a comprehensive update on the main issues of the day in employment law. Leading legal experts will present on the most recent legislative and case law developments at the time of the conference and the morning will conclude with an interactive panel discussion on the issues likely to have the most critical impact on employee relations in the next ten years. The conference is a key event for all employment lawyers and HR professionals.

Speakers:

- Innes Clark WS (Conference Chair), Partner and Head of Employment, Morton Fraser LLP
- Caspar Glyn QC, Cloisters
- Michael Howlin QC, Terra Firma Chambers
- Stephen Miller, Partner, Simpson & Marwick
- Shona Simon, President, Employment Tribunals (Scotland)
- Peter Hunter, Legal Officer, Unison

Sessions include:

- An Employment Law Round-Up: What's new and what to expect
- Whistleblowing
- Top 3 Cases of 2015
- TUPE update
- Panel Session: Employment Law - The Next 10 Years
(including discussion on likely forthcoming changes to the law; the role of unions and challenges for employers in terms of employee relations in the coming years; and the role of employment tribunals and the issue of fees/access to justice).

Bookings can be made here.

For more information please contact Nicole Hatch WS.

Delegate rates:

WS member: £ 115 + VAT

Non-member: £ 130 + VAT

Trainee/student: £ 70 + VAT

CPD/TCPD: 3.5 hours (Law Society of Scotland)

