PERSONAL INJURY TRUSTS THE BIG PICTURE

Nick Holroyd, Advocate, LL.B, BCL (Oxon.), TEP, FSA Scot;
What are they? Why might you want one? What are the pitfalls?

THE DETAIL

Derek Francis, Advocate, LL.B., TEP, Chairman TrustBar
How do you set it up? Bare Trust/ IHTA s. 89 – 89B Trust? Tax consequences?

The Trusts Fiduciaries and Executries Bar Group (“TrustBar”) is the special interest group for Members of the Faculty of Advocates practising in the areas of wills, trusts and executries and in areas concerning fiduciary relationships. Trusts and executries are self-explanatory. “Fiduciaries” in the title reflects the use of the fiduciary principle not merely in trust law but also in areas such as the law of directors’ duties, agency, partnership, and proceeds of crime. A major part of the function of TrustBar is to run CPD-qualifying events for the Bar, Trust and the Accounting and Tax professions throughout Scotland and in doing so to provide a point of contact amongst practitioners.

The Scottish Tax Network is a group drawn from various professional bodies in and Scotland. We promote the tax profession as a whole, whatever professional qualifications are held, by organising joint seminars/CPD events together with networking opportunities and the cross-promotion of events organised by individual bodies. The bodies whose members are involved are:-

Chartered Institute of Taxation (Scotland Branch)
Society of Trust & Estate Practitioners Scotland
Faculty of Advocates Trusts Fiduciaries and Executries Group ("Trustbar")
Faculty of Advocates Tax Law Group
ICAEW (Members in Scotland)
Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland

In addition to the above talks we hope to have a short period for questions. We hope that as many people from your firm as possible will be able to attend.
